Fall 2014 Edition

Fall Tour 2014
New Album
Here For A Good Time
Mikes Monthly

During their 10-Year Anniversary, Skinny Molly has shown they won't be slowing down any time soon. They are celebrating by releasing their third CD, Here for a Good Time, this month. Then the band has a worldwide tour in support of the new CD, with a huge release party planned at the Borderline in London, England on October 16th.

Omni Studios (Nashville) and Moss Rose Studios (White Bluff) have been abuzz for the latter part of the Summer as Skinny Molly has put together an action-packed album of original material that shows no signs of compromise and a determination to keep pushing the music forward. And the band sounds tighter than ever with music that provides a different atmosphere than its predecessor Haywire Riot, but still with that patented, hard hitting Skinny Molly pulse that have made them beloved all over the world.

Skinny Molly

Skinny Molly will spend the entire month of October (in addition to concerts in November) promoting Here for a Good Time with a few select shows here in the US before heading to Europe. After a three show run for Thunder Beach at Runaway Island in Panama City Beach, Florida the band heads overseas for concerts in the United Kingdom, France, Belgium, Holland, Germany and the Czech Republic.

Been Busy!

Just like Haywire Riot, Mike Estes has produced an exciting sounding CD along with engineer Derek Parnell (Willie Nelson, Eric Clapton). In addition to producing, Estes again has penned all the material, with some collaboration, including a song written and performed with Ed King. All 10 songs are instant classics, with memorable hooks, great guitar solos and whip smart lyrics, all trademarks of Skinny Molly!
